

The Train Now Departing

Date: 27th October

Venue: Crewe Library

Times: 1pm - 4pm. Total of 4 set time shows.

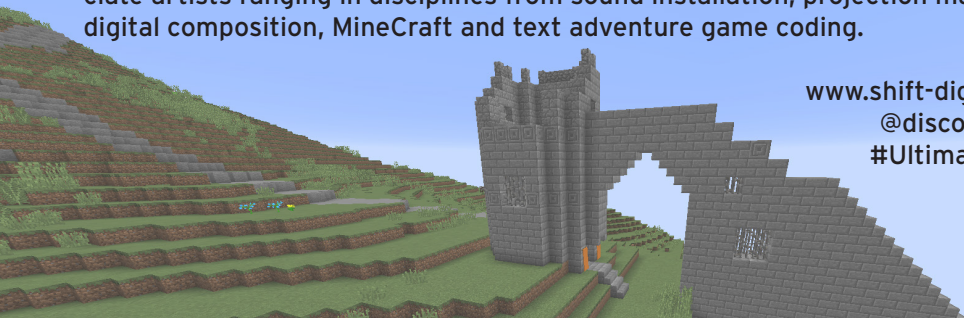

The Train Now Departing is an immersive promenade play about the future, created by the Young People of Crewe. The year is 2068, Emily is about to start her new job as a train engineer. She believes in a future where technology transforms the world for the better. When she enters the engine room, she discovers that not all fantasies turn out the way we might imagine. Follow Emily as she makes a difficult choice, fights her heroes, and rescues monsters to create a world she can believe in.

Come and immerse yourself in an interactive experience created by the Young People of Crewe. You'll be taken on a journey through different immersive experiences around the library, a mixture of audio and visual performances to pull you into the future.

Performance suitable for all ages.

For more information call Crewe Library on 01270 375295

Created over 5 months through workshops in creative and digital skills in Crewe Library, a cohort of young people have taken over the library every Monday to dream of an alternative future together with artist collective Re-Dock and associate artists ranging in disciplines from sound installation, projection mapping, digital composition, MineCraft and text adventure game coding.

www.shift-digital.co.uk

@discoverSHIFT

#UltimateReality

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

RE-DOCK SHIFT